Plot to Dynamite U.S.-Mexico Bridge Stopped

REPORTER'S REFLECTIONS — The nation's press is becoming a punching bag for widely differing political ideologies.

Richard Nixon's swan song after losing the California gubernatorial race included a generalized slam at newspaper reporters. This reverberated through the pages of print and over the wavelengths of radio and TV.

The 1960 campaign has come in for some review again as a result of the Nixon castigation. The charge of anti-Nixon reporting has reared its head for a reheating.

The blunt of the blows fall on the working press, since newspaper publishers supported Nixon for the presidency by an overwhelming margin of about 80 per cent. In the recent California contest, some 75 per cent of that state's newspapers supported Nixon editorially.

On the other hand, the press has had its troubles with Nixon's opponent in the 1960 campaign, John F. Kennedy. The complaints of the press corps are numerous against the dissemination of news by the Kennedy administration.

The most recent furor raged over Defense Secretary Arthur Sylvester's remark about news being a part of the "weaponry" of the nation.

From the Kennedy side, officially the complaints have been ignored. There has been no serious attempt to answer the newsmen's beefs.

Some light comes from Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy who, in talking about the Mississippi ordeal, was quoted by The Sunday Times of London, as saying, "I have recently talked to two publishers, whose newspaper chains include newspapers in Alabama, who try to infuse some sanity in their readers, but it is very difficult to change the climate if most media of communication are working against you."

This does not indicate "Bobby" thinks the press is overly friendly with the objectives of the present administration.

What does this prove? Nixon says the press was against him in 1960 and yet his opponent in that race has never during his term of office had good press relations. And this relationship has rapidly disimproved during the past six weeks.

Ever since the press was dubbed the Fourth Estate, in the early 19th century, it has been feared, viewed skeptically and dubiously honored, but never highly respected.

Ordinary citizens and those in public life have one thing in common: they want people to think well of them and to speak well of them. They do not want others to know about the things they are not too proud of or are ashamed to admit.

The press attempts to see the actions of people individually or banded together in voluntary groups up to and including organized governments, as they are, not as those affected wish to appear.

The hopes, fears, goals and aspirations of people are vitally important to them. They have thought reporters were against them if reporters did not attach the same importance to their activities as they felt should be attached.

In short, one charge against the working press comes from the unwillingness of the press to become a public relations organ for any one of a million or so good and not so good causes.

As a member of the fraternity, this writer would never defend the infallibility of reporters; we are human. Nor would I care to state

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (AP)—A U.S. Immigration Service official said today Mexican authorities stopped a plot to dynamite the International Bridge between this south Texas city and Matamoros, Mexico.

Dudley Underwood of Brownsville said authorities arrested 10 men Monday night in Matamoros.

Mexican army officials confirmed the report and said the men were being held in the Matamoros garrison. No names were disclosed.

Authorities told Ray Kasper, news director of radio station KBOR here, that the men arrested had 50 sticks of dynamite in their possession along with plans to bomb both a new and old bridge. Both span the Rio Grande.

Kasper said two of the arrested men are known to be pro-Castro Cubans living in Mexico.

He quoted Mexican army authorities as saying the plans also called for the destruction of the Mexican

Bomb Wrecks Car of Cuba Exile Head

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — A powerful bomb today wrecked the automobile in which Jose Miro Cardona, Cuban Revolutionary Council president, had an hour earlier ridden to his home from Miami International Airport.

Miro Cardona, first prime minister in Fidel Castro's revolutionary government, had returned from Washington where he conferred with U.S. officials and Latin-American diplomats on the Cuban situation.

The exile leader, members of his family and staff were asleep in the duplex apartment house which serves as his office and home when the bomb exploded.

Miro Cardona ran to the street in his night clothes and found his car torn apart and gasoline-fed flames shooting 25 feet into the air.

Miro broke with Castro in July 1960, and took refuge in the Argentine Embassy in Havana. He arrived in Miami Oct. 11 and soon had quasi U.S. government recognition as the prime Cuban exile leader.

May Start to Sell More of Misprints Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — The sale of deliberately misprinted Dag Hammarskjöld stamps may be resumed Wednesday if a federal court approves, a postal official indicated today.

James F. Kelleher, special assistant to Postmaster General J. Edward Day, said the controversial misprints will go back on sale instantly upon settlement of a court suit they inspired.

Officials Study Latest Cuban Move

Kennedy Expected To Clarify Things At News Conference

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today it is too early yet to know just what value to put on an offer by Fidel Castro to give up the Soviet jet bombers now in Cuba.

Rusk took that attitude after an early morning meeting at the White House with President Kennedy and other high officials.

Castro was reported by Havana radio to have written Acting U.N. Secretary-General U Thant of his willingness to have the bombers removed from Cuba, implying that he made his move because they are old and slow.

Receipt of the message was confirmed at the United Nations in New York.

Key Issue

Removal of the bombers has been a key issue in the stalled U.S.-Soviet negotiations on a Cuban settlement. Kennedy holds Soviet Premier Khrushchev responsible for withdrawing offensive weapons and puts the bombers in that class along with the Soviet missiles which this country has been counting as ships hauled them away.

U. S. authorities were scanning Castro's remarks to see what conditions might be included. Khrushchev has offered to withdraw the bombers in the past but attached conditions not acceptable to the United States.

In any case, U.S. authorities made clear, this country is holding the Soviet Union responsible for removal of the bombers as well as the missiles.

Hidden Missiles In Cuba

NEW YORK (AP) — The United States has learned that tactical missiles capable of carrying nuclear warheads have been hidden inside Cuba and the missiles are capable of reaching into Guantanamo naval base, the New York Herald Tribune reported today.

Known as "Frogs," these ground-to-ground mobile missiles have a range of about 25 miles, the newspaper said in a Washington dispatch from its Pulitzer Prize-winning reporter, Marguerite Higgins.

She wrote that administration officials were unwilling to explain how they obtained "clear evidence" that the missiles were hidden inside Cuba.

"Frog"—Firing Range Over Ground—missiles are capable of using both conventional explosives and atomic warheads.

In effect, they amount to long-range artillery weapons of a kind that could be crucial in a push against the U. S. naval base at Guantanamo, Cuba.

Grand Jury Hears Case Charging Supervisors

By CLARK KELLY
Telegraph City Reporter

A Stephenson County grand jury is today considering charges against 10 county supervisors, who served as election judges, Nov. 6. The jury was summoned Monday by Stephenson County State's Attorney Dexter A. Knowlton and convened today at 10 a.m.

The supervisors served as judges in defiance of an opinion handed down by Attorney General William Clark.

The opinion, was based on the Corrupt Practices Act of 1955 as amended, stated it is illegal for supervisors to be appointed by themselves, to any office other than the office of chairman of their board. This opinion was given to Winnebago County State's Attorney William R. Nash, a few days before the Nov. 6 election.

Nash had asked for the opinion, after a supervisor asked that the question be cleared up. The supervisor, Ransom Bradley, Pecatonica Township, told Nash it had been a common practice for some time. Following Clark's opinion, Winnebago supervisors resigned from the election boards.

In Stephenson County, the question arose following the Winnebago resignations, and was directed to the board's attorney, Asst. State's Attorney, Robert G. Law. Law told the board there was no precedent in the matter and an Attorney General's opinion amounted to the "lowest form of the law." He further said it would take a "pile of dough" to test the opinion.

Comments

These comments by Law, who is also Stephenson County Republican County Chairman, were included in an article covering the board meeting written for the Freeport Journal-Standard by Donald Breed Jr.

Someone apparently sent a clipping of the article along with a letter to Clark, a Democrat, asking what he intended to do about it. Clark answered with a letter to Knowlton Friday, asking him to consider grand jury indictments against the 10 supervisors involved.

Under Illinois law, the State's Attorney is not forced to prosecute.

Indians Ready Desperate Defense Against Chinese

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru today named a new army chief of staff and told Parliament the battered Indian army is ready for a desperate stand against Chinese Communist warriors rushing toward the rich plains of Assam.

Nehru also declared the Chinese "have sent many suggestions (for talks) but we are not going to accept any one of them. We shall continue the war until we win."

Gen. Joyanto Nath Shauhuri, 54, commander of the Indian troops that seized Portuguese Goa last December in lightning conquest, was named to succeed Gen. P. N. Thapar.

Nehru said Thapar was relieved for health reasons and is going on a long leave.

Like Thapar, the new commander is a graduate of Britain's famed Sandhurst military school and a veteran of World War II.

Nehru said the Chinese are advancing from captured Bomdila, only 80 road miles from the plains, along a road which leaves the mountains and runs through a strip of jungle before emerging onto rich rice fields and tea estates.

"Defensive positions have been prepared in front of them and our troops will give battle there," Nehru said. He said the Chinese were "a few miles beyond Bomdila."

AP News Analysis

Moscow-Red China Split Widening

By GENE KRAMER

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Some Warsaw quarters for the first time are describing the Moscow-Peking split as unbridgeable.

Cautious experts on Communist affairs continue to warn that the Soviet Union and Communist China still have more in common than divides them. But these voices are softer in the wake of recent developments over Cuba.

One diplomat says flatly the recent purge of Stalinists in Bulgaria and the apparent downgrading of the Berlin question are frantic Soviet efforts to shore up Moscow's flanks for a full-dress showdown with Mao Tse-tung.

"The bridge has washed away," another diplomat commented. He was referring to the traditional role of Poland as a bridge, or mediator, in Moscow-Peking disputes.

Supporting View

Supporting this view is the possibility that veteran Chinese Communist Ambassador Wang Pingnan may quit the Warsaw post he has held for seven years.

Wang is now in Peking. A well informed diplomat said Monday he has been told if Wang returns to Warsaw, it will be to make his farewell calls.

This report touched off speculation on the future of the periodic ambassadorial meetings between Red China and the United States, held in Warsaw since 1958.

Wang, the dean of Chinese Communist diplomats in Eastern Europe as well as of the Warsaw diplomatic corps, went home in mid-October for what was then described as a temporary absence. Subsequently, Chinese Red ambassadors were called home from other Soviet bloc capitals.

Not Expected

No rupture of diplomatic relations between Communist China and the Soviet bloc is expected at this stage. But the replacement of Wang by a junior diplomat would be evidence that Peking no longer attaches value to Warsaw as a point for mediation within the Communist world—or with the United States.

Wang's absence has already caused postponement of one meeting with U. S. Ambassador John M. Cabot—from Oct. 25 to Dec. 13.

Other evidence of the Soviet bloc—Chinese split was provided last

Nehru Requests More U.S. Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—India's Prime Minister Nehru has sent an urgent personal plea to President Kennedy for helicopters and transport planes.

The request was made in a letter delivered to the President on Monday by India's Ambassador B. K. Nehru, a cousin of the prime minister. Indian defenses were crumbling at the time as Red Chinese battalions advanced toward the populous plains of Assam.

Gives Report

The ambassador said he gave the President a report on the military situation and India's urgent defense needs in the border war.

India also sent requests to the U.S. State Department for more arms and equipment to supplement the $5 million worth already delivered. Engaged along a 1,500-mile frontier with Red China, India has a major problem in supply and equipment for its troops.

State Department press officer Lincoln White said the United States views seriously the large-scale Chinese attacks.

But the Red offensive will grow, according to a Peking radio report. It said Red China's Premier Chou En-Lai sent letters last Thursday to heads of 24 African and Asian nations saying U.S. arms aid to India would enlarge the conflict. The radio report said Chou asked the African and Asian leaders to help promote a peaceful settlement.

Concerned

U.S. officials here are concerned that Pakistan may agree to a non-aggression pact with Red China. This would open the way for Chinese troops to go through the Chumbri Valley 40 miles to Darjeeling and

Cuban Ship Says It Was Attacked by Plane

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — Havana radio charged today a "Yankee plane" flew over a Cuban merchant ship Monday on the high seas of southwest Bermuda and dropped 11 bombs, some of which exploded 30 feet above the vessel.

The radio said the ship, the Rio Damuji, reported by radio that the bombing was preceded by 72 hours of "pirate checks" by U. S. planes and vessels.

In Washington, a spokesman for the Pentagon denied that any U. S. plane was involved.

Advisory Committee Wants $10-Billion Tax Cut in '63

WASHINGTON (AP)—Upturns in home construction, factory orders and personal income during October brightened the economic outlook today as a presidential advisory committee recommended a $10-billion tax cut early next year.

In separate reports, the Commerce Department announced Monday: Personal income rose $2.1 billion last month to a record annual rate of $45.6 billion.

Construction was started on 129,100 privately owned houses and apartment units, for a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 1,497,000, up 17 per cent from September and 4 per cent above October of last year.

New High

Orders for durable goods climbed 3 per cent to a new high, exceeding the previous peak last January at tributed in part to a heavy surge of steel orders.

Durable goods sales in October held steady at $16.4 billion, matching manufacturers' sales during August and September and equalling the peak of last spring.

The President's 21-member Advisory Committee on Labor-Management Policy informed him Monday that a majority favors a $10-billion tax cut early next year to strengthen the economy and expand production.

In its report on fiscal policy, the committee outlined a double objective—to increase immediate demand for both consumption and investment, and, in the long run, to step up the rate of expansion of the nation's productive capacity.

"The United States can and must improve its recent record of economic progress," the report said.

Drafts Report

The committee, composed of business and labor executives and public representatives, met last Friday to draft its report. Its non-voting alternate chairmen are the secretaries of labor and commerce.

The report was delivered to the White House by Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz and Edward Gudemman, filling in for Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges. Gudemman is acting secretary of commerce while Hodges is away on a trip.

Weather of Varied Nature Hits Nation

By The Associated Press

Stormy weather hit areas in the Northwest and rain and cloudy skies were reported in most of the eastern half of the nation today.

Rain, driven by winds as high as hurricane force, swept inland across Washington and Oregon to Wyoming and Montana Monday. Rain and stiff winds continued during the night.

Wind gusts up to 97 m.p.h. were clocked officially at Livingston, Mont., north of Yellowstone Park. Gusts up to 125 m.p.h. were recorded unofficially at Mt. Baldy, north of Cut Bank, Mont. The power-packed winds stirred up a dust storm across Montana from East Glacier to Glasgow. Telephone service was disrupted in several communities.

Rain dampened areas from the Southern Plains through Tennessee into the Middle Atlantic States. Snow mixed with rain fell in mountain areas of Virginia. Light snow was reported in Lower Michigan.

The strong winds in the Northwest fanned warmer air over the region. The 61 reading in Sheridan, Wyo., compared to 20 degrees at midnight Sunday.

Temperatures in the 30-40 degree range were reported in the major part of the country.

Frozen turkeys should be thawed in the refrigerator allowing about two days. They should not be thawed at room temperature. If defrosting must be hastened, place in cold water, changing water frequently.

You can prepare the stuffing the day before, but for safety's sake, don't stuff the bird until roasting time.

When the Thanksgiving dinner is over and everyone else has gone off to watch the football game or to chat in the living room, hie yourself off to the kitchen and take care of that left-over turkey.

You should remove any stuffing left in the turkey immediately after the meal and store it in a covered container in the refrigerator. Wrap the bird loosely and refrigerate at once.

Also, quickly cool and refrigerate the gravy.

For top quality and flavor, use left-over turkey, stuffing, and gravy within one or two days.

The third session of our Nutrition-Weight Control class was held Nov. 19. We concentrated on calorie counting.

Many report that they are becoming very proficient in judging serving portions and counting calories. We are also learning to choose lower calorie foods, to avoid or limit such foods as gravies, sauces, fried foods, sweets, cookies, cakes, pies and cream.

We are trying to budget calories to take care of special occasions. This will be very important with the holiday season ahead.

Dairymen are asking for trouble when they put two or more young heifer calves in the same pen and have no way of tying the calves after feeding milk or milk replacer.

First calf heifers sometimes freshen with blind quarters, large quarters or mastitis. The principal cause is that they were nursed by another calf while they were still quite young.

Dairy calf udder development starts early in life and immature udders are not immune to infection. Injury or stress can lower the resistance to mastitis organisms. Many cases may go unobserved because the outward symptom is not obvious. However, irreplaceable milk-secreting tissue may be destroyed if infection occurs.

The solution is to keep calves separated after receiving liquid feed until they lose their urge to nurse. One answer is to tie calves and feed them grain after they receive milk.

Over 100 friends called during the afternoon to welcome the Hares. Refreshments were served from decorated table covered with a lace cloth. The centerpiece was an arrangement of yellow and bronze mums in a crystal bowl.

Two branch candelabra with yellow lighted tapers were on either side. Mrs. Richard Jones, Mrs. William Hammer and the Misses Mae and Gladys Ruble alternated in pouring. Mrs. Max Plum and her committee were in charge of the kitchen.

Mr. Magoo Can Stay at Zoo As Long as He Isn't Two

WASHINGTON (AP)—The federal government has temporarily lifted the deportation order hanging over Mr. Magoo, the bachelor mongoose.

But the low is the law. Barring any further appeal to a higher executive or judicial level, Mr. Magoo must some day give up his happy home in the zoo at Duluth, Minn., and be packed off to his native India.

For a furry little mongoose who wasn't widely known up to a few days ago, Mr. Magoo has done quite well by the government. His case has reached Cabinet level.

Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall decreed late Monday that Mr. Magoo could stay at the zoo—but only as long as he remains a star attraction. Then it's off to India with him.

"The legal background for this commutation is quite lengthy," Udall said. "But it goes to the point that the law's intent was to prevent a population explosion among mongooses."

"This threat is obviously not an issue in the Duluth case, as was pointed out in one informal staff opinion which read: 'There can be no threat of an excess of the mongoose being loosed in Duluth as long as Magoo is not two.'"

Mr. Magoo was brought into the United States by a merchant seaman. As mongooses go, he wasn't anything special.

Then last week the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service lowered the boom. It pointed sternly to provisions of a 1900 law prohibiting the importation of mongooses. It looked like goodbye for Magoo.

But all of a sudden he was pretty big stuff in local animal circles. People bundled themselves up and went off through the cold streets of Duluth to visit the troubled mongoose. Thousands dropped by on Sunday.

While all this was happening in Du-that reporters have always maintained the highest integrity. But who has?

I would say there is no reporter who has not had the bitter experience of someone giving him part of a "picture" represented as the whole story and realizing afterward that the individual had used the reporter for the informant's personal advantage.

There is also no reporter who has not been charged with misinterpreting facts, when in the newsmen's best knowledge, his only sin was in not presenting the facts as the person charging him had wished.

Finally, each of us is employed by a publisher. We respect a publisher's right to take whatever editorial stand his convictions dictate. Publishers also respect their editors' fairness in printing events as they occur, even though the news may not favor the publisher's point of view.

If we satisfy our publishers and are attacked fairly equally by critics who have very different opinions, then we feel we do a reasonably honest, courageous job.

City Council Holds Short Session Today

The Dixon City Council today answered questions of Bill Dillavou, sales manager of Roberts Ford Sales, Inc., regarding last week's approval of a police squad car bid, which was awarded to another firm at a higher bid, approved payments of outside claims and payroll, heard a report on the new sewage plant construction, then adjourned. The short session lasted 15 minutes.

Dillavou, while not objecting to last week's acceptance of a bid of C. Marshall Olds, which was some $307 higher than that of Robert's Ford, questioned the practice of the "unnecessary expenditure."

Dillavou told the council that Roberts Ford regarded it unnecessary because the State of Illinois and surrounding community police departments were using autos similar to the one rejected by the council.

Commissioner of Public Safety Arthur Tofte, said that specifications had to be set up so that all of Dixon's auto firms could enter a bid if they so desired.

Tofte said the city had spent $500 on the trade-in auto and that the figure would have been higher except that most of the work had been done at the city garage. Tofte further added that the $500 did not include tires and other regularly replaced items.

Dillavou stated his discussion of last week's acceptance was to achieve an understanding in relation to future bids.

In other council action, the members approved a payroll and outside claims of $4,489.36, and authorized payment of $4,233.13 from the waterworks system bond construction account.

The commissioners also heard a report from Mayor George Lindquist regarding the river crossing line of the sewage treatment plant. Lindquist said the work is progressing slower than expected due to a heavier than expected river current.

Finance Commissioner Harold Rorer gave a review of the city's budget, saying that at the halfway point, Dixon has spent less than half of budgeted funds. Rorer said that if the winter expenditures were normal, the city would end the fiscal year in the black.

EST today at which he is expected to give an up-to-date report.

The news conference, Kennedy's first since the start of the Cuban crisis, is to be nationally broadcast and televised. It also will be broadcast throughout the world by the Voice of America.

Without any explanation, Kennedy's meeting today with the executive committee of the National Security Council was put off from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Whether that is the purpose or not, the shift would provide time for an evaluation, just before the news conference, of any Soviet follow-up to Castro's move.

U. S. authorities made it clear that what Kennedy says tonight will be affected by any word—or lack of word—from the Soviets during the day about removal of the bombers.

Without setting up a definite timetable that would give the proposition one of the major elements of an ultimatum, U. S. negotiators nevertheless have emphasized to the Soviets at the United Nations that they were in a hurry for a satisfactory response on the point.

The schedule for the Kennedy broadcast provided an implied time marker. Castro's declaration that he is willing to give up the craft because they are out of date would appear to be a face-saving solution for the Cuban leader.

improper for him to make any statements until the grand jury returns its verdict. This is expected to be about 4 p.m. today.

In Lee County, Clerk Sterling D. Schrock said 11 supervisors and one assistant supervisor served as judges in the recent election.

Bureau County Clerk Tony Fenoglio said he hadn't checked the records but estimated about 40 per cent of the 25 supervisors had acted as judges in the election Nov. 6. Fenoglio contended that the Bureau situation was different, in that the chairmen of the Democratic and Republican parties named the persons to be judges and certified these to the clerk. Fenoglio, in turn, certified them to the board, who directed him to certify the list to Bureau County Court Judge Hobart Gunning.

Bureau County State's Attorney, Donald C. Martin, according to Fenoglio, regarded this as meaning the County Court was the final authority on judges of election.

Schrock said the selection in Lee County was made in the same manner. Martin apparently based his statements on a 1955 opinion of Attorney General Latham Castle made to Bureau County State's Attorney Calhoun Phelps, Martin's predecessor.

Some sources have labeled the request by Clark for the prosecution of the 10, as sheer politics. They indicate this is an attempt by Clark, to cover up the voting irregularities in Cook County by Democrats.

Stephenson County is generally regarded as being a Republican stronghold.

Schwartz dismissed this saying, "nothing is further from the truth. This is solely a question of law, nothing more, nothing less. It is a question of whether we intend to make a mockery of the law or uphold it," he said.

When asked about his opinion of Law's statement that the Attorney General's opinion is the "lowest form of law," he replied, "The Attorney General's opinion is merely an advisory one, but in the courts, in absence of judicial precedence considerable weight is given to the Attorney General's opinion."

Schwartz said that under the 1953 act of the law, the supervisors were required by law to serve as election judges, but this was changed by the 1955 session of the legislature. He contended it was then the decision of the legislature that supervisors should not serve as judges of election.

Schwartz said he regarded the attitude of Law, saying it would take a pile of money to test the case, as a "highly improper attitude" and one "that should not have been made."

Schwartz would not comment about any plan to push cases against supervisors in other counties.

New Season Opens for Civic Music

Displaying personalities as captivating as their exceptional talent, Evelyn and Hazel Leland — billed professionally as The Leland Sisters, duo-pianists — opened the Civic Music Association's current season last night in the auditorium of Dixon High School in a brilliant performance of piano artistry.

The pianists, with remarkable precision and a thorough understanding of their concert selections, made their intent to present a "good show" apparent from the beginning and with strict attention to each other and their instruments, they achieved their purpose.

Bach's Sicilienne, a dance of Sicilian peasants, was chosen as the opening number and was followed by the composer's more familiar Fantasia and Fugue in A minor, and their arrangement of Mozart's Sonata in D major was particularly well adapted to two pianos and played with skill and depth.

Suite No. 2, Opus 17, by Rachmaninoff, closely resembling the composer's famous Concerto in C minor, included "Valse," "Romance" and the Neapolitan folk-melody, "Tarantella."

After a brief intermission, the performers offered Scherzo from "Midsummer Night's Dream," by Felix Mendelssohn, a delicate work revealing the composer's buoyant personality. An improvisation of themes from Franz Liszt's Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2, a favorite with the audience, was followed by a distinguished rendition of the Waltz from Anton Arensky's two-piano suite, a lilting melody and a work favored by duo-pianists.

Brazilera from "Scaramouche Suite" by Milhaud, the finale of his suite for two pianos and based on the Samba, a Brazilian dance, displayed the Leland Sisters' ability to quickly capture the tempo of a catchy rhythm for variety and a change of mood.

Rhapsody in Blue was given an exhilarating treatment by the artists as they skillfully executed the rhythmic variations of George Gershwin's favorite work first performed in 1924 by the composer and Paul Whiteman's orchestra.

The concert concluded with Manuel de Falla's Ritual Dance of Fire from "El Amor Brujo," an exciting instrumental interpretation of the gypsy dance performed in the ballet.

So synchronized were the movements of the two pianists, an awareness of two instruments was sometimes lost and the difficult repertoire arranged for the Dixon concert could be performed with such excellence only by superb and dedicated musicians.

No Bargain for USSR

The fact that Fidel Castro still seems to be head man in Cuba is of nagging concern to Americans.

Despite the removal of the Russian missiles, the most serious danger to our security, Castro is well armed and belligerent. Russian prestige and influence in Cuba show few signs of having suffered from the failure of the missile-flanking movement.

We are impatient. We want Castro and all the Reds out—now. We don't like to remember how our policies toward Cuba since the Spanish-American War helped prepare the ground for the Communist take over.

Having won the missile showdown, some of us have tended to minimize the extent of that victory and to maximize the standing threat of Cuba as a spearhead of communism in the Western Hemisphere.

Communism in Cuba and in this part of the world is certainly far from being solved. Short of an overthrow of Castro or an actual invasion of the island, which may be dismissed for a variety of reasons, the situation likely will remain much as it is for a long time.

Yet it would be foolish to feel that our only alternatives are either armed intervention or helpless bitterness. For the missile affair was not only morally costly to the Russians but their virtual subsidizing of the Cuban economy is a serious drain on their own non-too-affluent economy and that of their European satellites.

Rather than a wedge splitting the Western Hemisphere, Cuba may in the end leave irreparable cracks in the Communist monolith in Europe.

The economy of Eastern Europe is being increasingly tied with Cuba. Poland, which did $75,000 worth of trade before Castro, now does $47 million. Cuban-Czech trade increased from $3 million in 1958 to $80 million in 1961. Eastern Europe's share of Cuba's total trade has risen from 2 per cent pre-Castro to 80 per cent today.

Although sugar is surplus in the satellites, all have been forced to take sugar from Cuba. Hungary is short of onions but must export them to Cuba. Czechoslovakia, founding in its five year plan, has loaned Castro $40 million, built eight factories and six power stations and supplied great quantities of arms.

The Communists are not, of course, making these things known to their peoples. But agencies like Radio Free Europe are constantly piercing the Iron Curtain with such facts, documenting the Kremlin's manipulation of its satellites.

America has nothing to lose by watchful waiting regarding Cuba; we have already gained much in increased solidarity with other Latin nations. This can be strengthened by a continuing exposure of what it means to become an ally of Russia.

The Russians may have made a very poor investment in Cuba.

John Houston Likes to Maintain Insolvency

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—"When I wake up each morning," said director John Houston, "I think it offers more possibilities than any day I've ever known before."

"I don't live very much in the past. I don't prefer anything that ever happened to me over what might happen today or tomorrow."

Tall and spare at 56, Houston, son of the late actor, Walter Houston, has long been known as one of Hollywood's blither spirits and most versatile geniuses.

John has rumpled gray hair, and a crinkled face.

He has operated on the theory that life is something to live as you go along. He has been a boxer, actor, member of the Mexican cavalry, newspaper reporter, magazine writer, painter, U.S. soldier, script writer, and film producer.

"The mistakes most people make in living is taking the wrong things too seriously, such as giving a false importance to passing events that don't deserve it," Houston said as he sat, hunched in an old dressing robe in his hotel room, breakfasting on a big bowl of midday Manhattan clam chowder.

"People worry more about their economic security than their lives. They are more afraid of losing their jobs than of having the atomic bomb go off."

"I never worry about having a job—and I've been broke a number of times. In fact I'm always broke."

"Once I had a brief unhappy period of solvency a number of years ago. But by a desperate effort I got out of it. I even had a bank balance, but I got rid of it as soon as I found out about it."

One of the ways he avoids solvency is to maintain a 100-acre estate in County Galway—"any cottage of more than three rooms in Ireland is a castle"—where he rides to the hounds and keeps 25 horses and ponies. He tries to spend half of each year there.

"The things that are important to me," he said, "are my kids, my wife, my friends, my work and having a good time. A good time to me is doing the things I like to do."

"I like to go fox hunting or on safari, to visit art galleries and collect primitive art."

"When I was 50 years old, I decided I'd have a shot glass of bourbon on awakening every morning as a little reward for good clean living. But I haven't been able to live up to it. Like with most good resolutions, you keep forgetting."

The Doctor Says

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Written for NEA

Q—I recently discovered a large lump in my right breast. It has me worried. I do not like the idea of any more operations. I have had six already. I had a complete examination 18 months ago and the doctor didn't find anything wrong with my breasts. What should I do?

A—Some lumps in the breast are harmless, but a tumor could be cancerous. The fact that it wasn't there 18 months ago is of no importance. If it wasn't there 18 days ago, my advice would be the same. You should have your doctor examine you without delay. If he suspects cancer he will advise its removal.

No one in his right mind wants to undergo surgery unless it is the lesser of two evils. I don't care if you have had 60 operations in the past; if you have a condition now for which operation is demanded, you should jump at the chance.

You should know, however, that an operation may be only part of the treatment. After the operation your doctor may want to give you certain medicines or X-ray treatments to prevent further progress of the disease. He will surely want to keep you under close observation for some time.

Mrs. Adelle C. Pittman refers to a published article about her diets for the dumping syndrome that some people have after partial removal of the stomach. As a result, Mrs. Pittman has received many requests asking for additional information and specific diets. Mrs. Pittman wishes me to inform the readers that she can provide diet information only through physicians. If you are interested, please ask your doctor to address a request to Mrs. Pittman, at Veterans Administration Hospital, Houston 31, Texas.

Q—I am writing to you because I am too embarrassed to go to a doctor. Since June, 1961, I have found dried blood in my navel about once a week. What could cause this? Is it serious? Please don't tell me to see a doctor because I am only 16 and I'd feel embarrassed to tell my

J.F.K.'s Relations With Press Getting Sticky

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's relations with the press are getting sticky. Newsmen don't like the way his administration has handled them or information.

He faces questions about it this evening at his first news conference since Sept. 13. But he's had the idea of some restraint on news stories in a critical period, like this one with Cuba, since early in his administration.

His administration's ideas about this, and newsmen's idea about it, came into conflict after the Cuban crisis erupted because of what his administration said and did.

As a result of newsmen's criticism, Rep. John E. Moss, D-Calif., said his House Government Operations subcommittee would look into the situation.

Gap Understandable
The 10-week gap in his news conferences is understandable to some extent because Cuba became a critical problem since his last meeting with reporters. Actually he has held more news conferences this year than last.

Before he became president, while still a candidate in 1960, he said he thought that whoever was president would see the press once a week. He hasn't quite made good on it. He held 19 conferences last year, 24 so far in 1962.

Kennedy's concern about news stories in tense moments came out April 27, 1961, when he called on the press for some form of self-censorship because of cold war threats to national security.

On May 9, 1961, he told eight editors who called at the White House to hear more about his plea for self-restraint—that his administration contemplated no type of government restrictions on access to the news.

This meeting got a little confusing. Kennedy's press secretary, Pierre Salinger, said the President had suggested to the editors that newspapers select a representative to advise them on news which might affect national security.

Agrees
One of the editors, Felix R. McNight, who was president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, said the group agreed the nation's position was grave but suggested censorship, voluntary or otherwise, was not needed.

Kennedy, since taking office, repeatedly has had editors to the White House from all over the country to discuss national problems. But concern about his administration's mother about this, let alone a doctor. A—I can't imagine what would cause the dried blood you have seen in your navel unless you scratch yourself there in your sleep but, if that were so, you would probably have some itching or soreness there in the daytime.

I don't believe the condition is apt to be serious but you had better swallow your modesty and let a doctor see it. (You may prefer a woman doctor.)

Please send your questions and comments to Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Before you decide to marry that young man, remember that—if you haven't much to talk about now you'll find after a few years of marriage that you have even less.

● If he expects you to keep your job for "a while," you may be working the rest of your life.

● If he is jealous of your friends, he may even be jealous of his own children.

● If he has any small faults that annoy you, you'll probably be putting up with them for all of your married life.

● If he has a low opinion of women in general, he may not always consider you a remarkable exception.

● If he lets you make all the decisions now, you may find yourself wishing you had married a "real man" instead of someone you can lead around by the nose.

● If his main goal in life is "security," you may lead a secure but rather dull life.

● If he doesn't have many friends, you aren't likely to have many as a couple.

● If he depends on "getting the breaks" to get ahead, he isn't likely to go far.

● If you don't like his family but keep telling yourself "After all, I'm not marrying his family," you're wrong, unless you plan to move out of the country.

● If there are things about him you intend to change after you are married, don't count too much on being able to.

● If he enjoys making you jealous now, he isn't likely to give up the pleasure, once you're married.

● If you wonder whether or not he is the right man for you—he isn't.

MIAMI (AP)—During the slow fall tourist season, a row of apartment buildings all displayed the woful signs "Vacancy."

One building, however, was an exception. Proudly displayed was the sign, "Happily Filled."

Dear Ann:

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: I had no idea there were so many frigid husbands around until their wives began to confide in you. Frankly I feel better about my problem now.

My husband developed icicle tendencies shortly after our marriage. I was bewildered and confused. He was amorous during courtship—even eager.

Then the soul-searching began. Perhaps it was my fault. After trying all the tricks in the book (and a few out of the book) I knew I couldn't change him so I readjusted my thinking.

My icicle-husband has many fine qualities and no bad habits. He is an excellent provider, a community leader, interesting company and he treats me with consideration and respect. We are far happier than many couples who have nothing to say to each other—except in the bedroom.

At 34 I can say, without bitterness, that sex isn't what it's cracked up to be. I lead a full and satisfying life without it. — SERENE

Dear Serene: Not all people are willing (or able) to make an accommodation of this kind. If the rationale works for you—bravo. You couldn't beat him so you joined him.

Dear Ann Landers: My mother and dad were divorced three years ago. The court awarded me to my mother although my dad wanted me, too. The judge said I could make up my own mind on my 14th birthday. I will be 14 in January and I don't know what to do.

My mother remarried last year. Her new husband is nice but I'm uncomfortable around him. He always seems to be acting.

My dad married another woman one year after he and mom were divorced. I like his new wife but she has a very uppity daughter who is my age. Living in the same house with that girl would be horrible.

I've talked this over with my favorite teacher and she suggested I write to you. Can you help me? —GWENDOLYN

Dear Gwendolyn: Stay where you are and try to be more friendly to your step-father. I'll bet in time he thaws out. The situation in your father's new home has all the ingredients for instant trouble. Why put your head in THAT meat-grinder?

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a woman past 50 who has given the better part of her life to her job and her company. I was never married and in a moment you will know why.

My boss is the head of the business. He is an attractive, well-to-do bachelor 68 years of age. I've been in love with him for 22 years but he is unaware of my feelings. Our relationship has been a close one, professionally, and he treats me with the greatest respect. I am well paid and I love my work, but it is getting increasingly difficult for me to keep my love for this man disguised.

I know now I should have made my feelings known years ago, but there is no point in trying to relive the past. The question is, would I be making a fool of myself if I told him now? Yes, I am prepared to leave if he thinks it best. Please give me some advice.—OLD FAITHFUL

Dear Old Faithful: If the man felt about you as you do about him he would have let you know it. Obviously, he's had every opportunity. Now you at least have your self-respect.

Don't spill a tale of 22 years of unrequited love. It would sound bizarre and make the man uncomfortable. You are better off to leave—quietly.

Confidential to ALL READERS: Dozens of sharp-eyed Ann Fans wrote to tell me that a letter I published from "Augusta, Maine" was as neat a bit of plagiarism as has ever been slipped over on a trusting columnist.

"Augusta" asked "What is Woman?" and he went on to describe her caprices and her foibles. The culprit lifted (almost verbatim) several paragraphs from an old essay which was kicking around a number of campuses in the early 40's. (I got off my campus in '39, just in time to miss it.)

My thanks to all who called this thievery to my attention, a pox on the scoundrel who passed off the work as his own, and for me 10 lashes with a wet noodle for having been so readily hornswoggled.

Montagnards Are Vital Key In Viet Nam

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (P)—Americans in South Viet Nam are learning some lessons their forefathers knew by heart when the Indian and white man clashed for control of the North American continent.

Dotting the remote, jungle-covered highlands of central Viet Nam are hundreds of small forts and outposts, where Vietnamese troops and their American advisors base operations.

These operations are not intended to kill. They are to make friends and influence people.

Outside the posts are dark-skinned tribesmen, who dress in brilliant, hand-woven fabrics or loin clothes. They are silent, simple people, who hunt with spears and cross bows. Their arrows sometimes are tipped with deadly strychnine-based poisons extracted from native plants.

Some on Each Side

Some are fighting on the side of the Saigon forces. Some are fighting for the Vietnamese Communist rebels. Most are content to be left alone by all outsiders.

There are 700,000 of these highland mountaineers, divided into about 34 main tribal groups and dozens of sub-groups. Few of the tribes speak common languages. Only a minority speaks Vietnamese, the national language.

Yet they are the dominant inhabitants of a sparsely populated area making up about two-thirds of South Viet Nam's land area.

As such, they are key elements in the deadly war between the Viet Cong and the government, whether they like it or not.

The problem for the government is to win their allegiance and persuade them to help strangle the Communist enemy working among them.

For many years, outsiders—including the Vietnamese—have had little contact with the Montagnards, as they are called. Any contact was rarely cordial. Merchants from the lowlands selling the Montagnards cheap trinkets and beads often left cheated and embittered tribesmen behind.

Saigon forces and U.S. advisors with them are cutting into Viet Cong influence, but the work goes slowly.

Work Hard

The Viet Cong, realizing years ago the importance of Montagnard support in their highland campaign, has been working hard among the tribes, sometimes marrying into them to strengthen ties.

Americans and Vietnamese are learning side by side how to avoid violating important taboos. One does not enter certain parts of houses, and one does not cut wood in certain places. The spirits inhabiting certain streams must not be offended by dumping refuse into the water.

The bitter memories of the Indochina war still are reminders that the Montagnard can be a deadly enemy if he is not on your side.

The soft-spoken hunters played an important role supporting Viet Minh forces in North Viet Nam, especially in the closing months of the war at the battle of Dien Bien Phu.

Now the West is trying to avoid making the same mistake a second time.

'MULE TRAIN' TO HARPSICORD

HOPEWELL, N. J. (P)—Christopher Bannister's favorite music as a high school student was the singing of Frankie Laine.

A chance encounter with a recording by Wanda Landowska, famed harpsicordist, changed his taste and his life.

Bannister, now 25, not only learned to play the harpsicord but today is one of the eight manufacturers of the instrument in this country.

The harpsicord, forerunner of the piano, is enjoying a resurgence of popularity. Bannister is turning out a series of small harpsicords made to sell for less than $1,000. He says a full scale harpsicord sells for as much as $6,000.

Hub's (Top) Gunn Named to State Team

Five Teams Place Two Each on First Squad

SPRINGFIELD (P)—Bruce Gunn, 180 lb. senior fullback from Rochelle received honorable mention on the second annual all-state prep football squad named today.

Gunn was the second top scorer for the southwest division champs of the North Central Illinois Conference with 65 points. He gained 428 yards this year in 71 carries for a 6.0 average.

On defense for the Hubs he intercepted five passes and recovered four fumbles.

Other area players receiving honorable mention on the 1962 edition of the team were Lonnie Kull, Kewanee; Wethersfield; Martin Stebbins, Freeport; Dick Fordham, Manlius; John Price and Tom Stevenson, Ottawa; and Chuck Gaucher, Sycamore.

Five Illinois schools landed two positions each on the 22-man first team. They are Hinsdale, Joliet, Oak Park, Fenwick, Peoria Manual and Chicago Lane Tech. All were ranked among the top ten in the state this past season.

Only one player, tackle Bill Egbert of Carmi, repeated from last year. Center Tony Loukas of Chicago Vocational, who made the 1961 all-star squad, was edged out this year by Otis Smith of Evanston and Jim Walser of Joliet.

Walser, who at 245 pounds is the biggest player selected, was one of the top favorites in the balloting by the AP panel of 16 sports writers.

Other leading vote getters were halfback Bill Wehrspann of Joliet, end Bo Bachelder of Peoria Richwoods and guard Joe Marsico of Fenwick.

Seventeen schools, a majority of them from the Chicago area and northern Illinois, were accorded berths on the all-star aggregation.

Hinsdale, the state's No. 1 ranked team, was represented by tackle

Holland's 11 touchdowns and 66 points put the Badger star well ahead of Michigan State's George Saines, the leader most of the season, who has nine touchdowns and 54 points. Serrin Lewis of Michigan State is third with 52 points.

Liston to Move Residence From Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (P)—Heavyweight boxing champion Sonny Liston says he will move from Philadelphia, where he has had three brushes with the law, and take up permanent residence in Chicago.

Liston said Monday night he has arranged for the sale of his house in West Philadelphia.

He said he and his wife, Geraldine, will leave for Chicago today to complete the purchase of a home there.

Eagles Have Three Senior Lettermen Back

By BRUCE RICHARDSON
Telegraph Sports Editor
FRANKLIN GROVE — New Franklin Grove coach, Allen Severn, hopes to improve on the 5-18 record compiled by the Eagles last year. Severn has three senior lettermen back from the 1961-62 edition of the clubs plus a junior who saw a lot of action as a sophomore.

Returning seniors are Bill Lookingland, Bob Boyenga and Melvin Geyer. Geyer is the tallest on the 1962-63 club, standing 6-2½. He was the squad's leading scorer last year with 250 points for a 11.0 average per game.

New varsity mentor Severn expects the starting five to average about 5-11. He makes no prediction on the season but he expects the Route 72 Conference to be pretty tough.

Severn says that his club will have to develop some speed to make up for their lack of height.

Gone from the 1961-62 squad is the team's second top scorer and play maker, Monte Roop. Roop, 5-9, tallied 199 points for the Eagles. Franklin Grove also lost their starting center, Dave Clark.

Severn expects to move Geyer to the center post from the forward spot he played last year.

Severn has 14 on the 1962-63 varsity. Three are seniors, eight are juniors and three are sophomores. He terms this year as "a building year for the Eagles."

Seniors on the squad are Bill Lookingland, Bob Boyenga and Melvin Geyer.

Junior candidates are Lowell Bonnell, Marshall Gorton, Pat Hilliker, Gene Ackerson, Denny Fane, Dick Drew, John Dunseth and John Schaffer.

Sophomores on the varsity are Joe Weinzierl, Jerry Freadhoff and Ralph Thompkins.

The Eagles open their season Nov. 30 against the Cardinals of Forreston on the road. Their first home game will be Dec. 4 against Lyndon.

MSU to Seek Revenge for 1958 Loss

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (P) — Coach Pete Elliott is reminding his Illinois football squad in practices this week that Michigan State, Saturday's season-ending foe, will be seeking a strong measure of revenge in Memorial Stadium.

The Spartans, out of Big Ten title contention with two losses, have played only twice here and were defeated both times. In 1956 they were ranked the No. 1 team in the country and were upset by the Illini 20-13. In 1958, Illinois won 16-0 with another surprise that was MSU's first setback in 40 games.

But hopes of pulling another upset have been dimmed for the Illini, whose only victory in two years was 14-10 at Purdue Nov. 3. Since then they have lost to Michigan and last week were dismantled 35-6 by Wisconsin.

Fullback Dave Pike and No. 1 passer receiver Thurman Walker missed the Wisconsin game with injuries and also have been ruled out for Saturday along with sophomore guard Archie Sutton, a 250-pounder. Questionable is halfback Trenton Jackson, a speedster hobbled with a bad ankle.

Hopes must rest with the running of Ken Zimmerman, Mike Summers, Jim Warren and Norm Willis, and with the main threat of all, quarterback Mike Taliaferro.

He is one of the team's best ball-carriers with 129 yards in 64 trips. The average gain is not high, but it combines nicely with his aerial work which has produced 74 completions in 202 attempts for 1,067 yards and 4 touchdowns.

However, 17 of his passes have been intercepted.

Scout Dean Stauber, who has watched the Spartans three times, including their 31-7 rout of Northwestern last week, had this to say:

"Although they are a great running team, Illinois should prepare for more passing. They used a sophomore quarterback, Roger Hailey, out of a spread against Purdue and he was a surprise starter against Northwestern. It looks as if he has won the No. 1 quarterback job. He hit on 6 out of 11 against the Wildcats."

Defensive team:

Ends—Jim Adams, Western Illinois; Tom Mackiewicz, Illinois State. Tackles—Lynn McCann, Northern Illinois; Uwe Wiese, Central Michigan.

Guards—Ralph Soffredin, Central Michigan; Leroy Blackful, Eastern Illinois; Ken Johnson, Illinois Normal.

Linebackers — Mike Henigan, Northern Illinois; Fred Fleischbein, Western Illinois.

Backs—Charles Trumpinski, Western Illinois; Dick Zion, Illinois Normal; Ernie Thompson, Northern Illinois.

PHILADELPHIA — George Benton, 162½, Philadelphia, stopped Allan Harmon, 167½, Jamaica, 9.

TUCSON, Ariz. — Zora Folley, 197, Chandler, Ariz., outpointed Dave Furch, 202, Phoenix, 10.

Cardinals Get Groat In Trade With Pirates

'Whizzer' White To Join Football Hall of Fame

NEW YORK (P) — Associate Supreme Court Justice Byron R. White, known as "Whizzer" during his collegiate football playing days at Colorado and with the professional Pittsburgh Steelers, will receive the sixth gold medal of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame.

Justice White will join 12 new inductees into Football's Hall of Fame at the ceremony, Dec. 4, that was announced today. Eleven of those to be inducted are former players, the 12th former Dartmouth and Brown University Coach Tuss McLaughery.

The former players to be inducted are Pat O'Dea of Wisconsin; Phil King, Princeton; Jack Mims, Penn; Andy Wyant, Bucknell and Chicago; Benny Boynton, Williams; Guy Chamberlain, Nebraska; Dan Hill, Duke; Cal Hubbard, Centenary and Geneva; John McEwan, Army; Joe Rott, Texas A&M, and Bill Spears, Vanderbilt. O'Dea, King and Rott are deceased.

Pirates' Brown Wants to Talk Player Swaps

PITTSBURGH (P)—General Manager Joe L. Brown of the Pittsburgh Pirates is talking like a kid with doubles of bubble gum baseball cards. He's made one trade and he's ready and raring to make more.

"This will not be the last major deal announced by us this year," Brown said Monday following disclosure of the trade with the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Pirates gave up shortstop Dick Groat and relief pitcher Diomedes Olivo for pitcher Don Cardwell and shortstop Julio Gotay.

Winter-league trading starts on Wednesday.

"I anticipate we will talk with 10 or more clubs. Prospects are bright for a trade with some of the clubs."

Brown declined to be specific, following his usual policy. He never names names or teams. But he must be given credit for one characteristic—he is a man of his word.

At a press luncheon last week, he flatly stated the Pirates would make at least one major trade in the off-season. Now that he's fulfilled that promise, he's ready for more.

Southern Cal Takes 1st in Poll

By The Associated Press
Southern California rushed in today where angels fear to tread and took over the jinx-loaded No. 1 spot in The Associated Press major college football rankings in a tight finish with Mississippi, another unbeaten power.

The fall of Alabama, last week's leader, after its upset by Georgia Tech, opened the door for Southern California, Mississippi, Wisconsin, Texas and Minnesota to rush past the Crimson Tide which dropped to the No. 6 rung.

Southern California's unbeaten Trojans, who just did get past Navy 13-6, drew 20 first-place votes to 15 for Mississippi, a 19-6 winner over Tennessee. The remainder of the 48 votes from the guest panel of sports writers and sportscasters participating in the weekly Associated Press poll were spread over four teams with Wisconsin, No. 3, getting seven firsts, Penn State three, Texas two and Minnesota one.

On a point score with 10 for a first place ballot, nine for second and so on down, Southern California had a 439-403 margin over Mississippi.

Missouri, beaten by Oklahoma 13-0, and Northwestern, a 31-7 loser to Michigan State, dropped out of the top ten. Penn State, a romping 46-20 winner over Holy Cross, and Oklahoma, moved in.

The top ten with first place votes in parentheses:

1. Southern California (20) .. 439
2. Mississippi (15) ..... 403
3. Wisconsin (7) ..... 384
4. Texas (2) ..... 326
5. Minnesota (1) ..... 235
6. Alabama ..... 232
7. Arkansas ..... 209
8. Louisiana State ..... 140
9. Penn State (3) ..... 94
10. Oklahoma ..... 43

Russian Women Top Iowa Team In Basketball

MOUNT PLEASANT, Iowa (P) — Iowa girls definitely are no match for Russian women on the basketball court, and it's beginning to look as if the Soviet men may also win their duel with the Americans.

The Russian women overpowered the Iowa Wesleyan Tigerettes 88-38 Monday night, and the men nipped the NAIA All-Stars 83-82 on a desperation shot at the final buzzer.

The women's victory was their fifth straight over American girls, and the men's triumph was their third in a row and gave them a 3-2 edge with three games to play in the tour.

A crowd of 1,100 turned out for the exhibitions here and saw a blazing battle between the men with the lead changing hands three times in the last 40 seconds.

The Tigers leave Tuesday night for home after their one-month tour in which they won 11, lost 4 and tied 2 games.

Net profits from Tuesday's game will be donated to the 1964 Tokyo Olympic Games fund.

A HELPING HAND—Fourteen friends and neighbors of Ed Yingling, Rt. 3, Polo, came to his farm Monday and harvested nearly 66 acres of corn. Yingling was injured Oct. 14 when he fell from a garage roof at his home. There were five corn pickers and two combines working in the fields bringing the corn to the farm for storage. Yingling is second from right in the picture. Others are Floyd Merdian, George Schoen, Bob Maxey, Lawrence Yingling, Kenny Matson and Bob Tate. Men working in the fields included Robert Kyker, Gene Herring, Chris Ehlers, Marion Maxey, Irvin Scholl, Paul Colson, Edwin Yingling and Russell Engel. The wives of these men also assisted Mrs. Yingling in preparing a dinner for them at noon.

LOOKING UP to the improved Ashton telephone service facilities being installed is Donald Hall, left, manager of the Farmers Telephone Co., Franklin Grove. Shown installing the new toll facilities are Charles Shisler and Donald Gash, both Western Electric installers, Rockford. This equipment will carry eight Bell long distance trunk lines directly to Dixon toll lines thus eliminating the need for Ashton calls to go through Franklin Grove operators. With the installation of this equipment, outside areas will be able to dial Ashton directly, but Ashton subscribers will not be able to direct dial other outside cities until further planned additions to the facilities have been made. The installers have been working a week and will be followed by a crew of Western Electric engineers who will have the unit in operation sometime in December. Other improvements in Farmers Telephone Co. service will follow the engineer's full area survey to begin Dec. 10.

Limousine Crashes, Girl Is Killed

WINNETKA, Ill. (P)—A limousine carrying nine New Trier High School seniors home after collecting food for Thanksgiving distribution plowed into a tree Monday night, killing one and injuring the others, four critically.

The victim was Pamela Schreiner, 17, of Wilmette.

In critical condition in Evanston Hospital were John Dawson, 17, of Wilmette, identified by police as driver of the car; Daniel Bryant, 18, and Pam C. Thorsen, 18, both of Wilmette; and Virginia Vezbeck, 17, of Wilmette.

Also hospitalized were Charles Bernstein, 17, of Wilmette; Marcy Button, 17, of New Trier Township; John Roche, 17, and Richard Tinkham, 17, both of Wilmette.

Miss Schreiner was the daughter of Charles F. Schreiner, former Winnetka Episcopal rector. Schreiner divorced Ada Schreiner earlier this year and married Mrs. William J. Hagenah Jr., daughter of chewing gum magnate Philip K. Wrigley.

Roche received honorable mention in the Associated Press all-state football team today. He led New Trier to the Suburban League championship.

Dawson is the son of John A. Dawson, head of the John A. Dawson & Co. investment firm in Chicago.

Police said Dawson swerved off Sheridan Road to go around a lighted barricade at a construction site, then moved back onto the road, but overshot it and hit the tree.

The students had been collecting cans of food for the high school's distribution to charities Thanksgiving.

NEWS of the NATION

WASHINGTON (P)—Seventeen percent of the new federal employees hired in the year beginning June 1961 were Negroes and most of their jobs were of the white collar type. The job figures were in a report made Monday by the President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity. It said Negroes are winning a larger share of federal government jobs.

WASHINGTON (P)—The Defense Department said today that many areas in the upper floors of tall buildings had been tabbed for use as fallout shelters. It said selection of such spaces has been a common practice in the program, but was unable to say how many shelters in more than 112,000 buildings are on upper floors.

WASHINGTON (P)—Development of an inexpensive, easy-to-build incinerator to burn solid combustible waste materials contaminated with low-level radioactivity was announced today by the Interior Department. The incinerator was designed and developed by research workers of the Bureau of Mines in a project sponsored by the Atomic Energy Commission.

WASHINGTON (P)—American servicemen around the world will feast Thursday on Thanksgiving turkey and all the trimmings from shrimp cocktail to after-dinner mints.

The Defense Department said 112,000 turkeys are being prepared by military cooks for Thanksgiving dinners.

CLEVELAND (P)—Mrs. William G. Giesse of suburban Mayfield Heights, who won the Mrs. American title in 1958, is seeking a divorce. Her husband blames pressures of modern life for their breakup.

THIS BIG ONE'S IN THE LOW-PRICE FIELD

DODGE DIVISION CHRYSLER

INTRODUCING THE 1963 DODGE

The low-price field is about the last place a traditionalist would expect to find Dodge. The Dodge name has been associated with the medium-price boys since Hector was a pup. But the fact remains: the '63 Dodge is priced down with good old cars "F" and "C". Now, you can stay with a low price and get a lot more car. The name proves it; Dodge! You get the comfort Dodge is famous for. You get a smooth torsion-bar ride; experts call it best in the business. You get a V8 loaded for bear. (Or, the famous gas-saving 6 with the muscle of conventional V8's.) If that isn't enough to turn the other two green with envy, how's this for a clincher? Every 1963 Dodge is backed by a revolutionary new 5-year/50,000 mile warranty.*

*Your authorized Dodge Dealer's Warranty against defects in material and workmanship on 1963 cars has been expanded to include parts and internal parts, transmission case and internal parts (excluding manual clutch), torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, excluding dust covers, rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings—provided the vehicle has been serviced at reasonable intervals according to the Dodge Certified Car Care schedule.
